- (13) to consider the motions raised by shareholders who represent 3% or more (inclusive of 3%) of the total number of voting shares of the Company;
- (14) to consider other matters which, according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, should be resolved by the shareholders at general meetings.
- (15) to authorise or delegate the board to deal with matters as authorised and instructed at the general meetings.

Article 103 of the Company Law

Article 55 The Company shall not, without the prior approval of the general meeting, enter into any contract with any person other than directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and other members of the senior management whereby the management of the whole or any substantial part of the business of the Company is to be handed over to such person.

Article 51 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 56 General meetings shall include annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. General meeting shall be convened by the board. The annual general meetings shall be held once every year within six months after the conclusion of the previous accounting year.

Article 52 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Under any of the following circumstances, the board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months:

- (1) when the number of directors is less than the number of directors required by the Company Law or two-thirds of the number of directors specified in the Articles of Association;
- (2) when the losses of the Company that have not been made up amount to one-third of the total amount of its share capital;
- (3) when shareholder(s) individually or in aggregate holding 10% or more (inclusive of 3%) of the Company's issued and outstanding shares carrying voting rights request(s) in writing the convening of an extraordinary general meeting; or
- (4) when deemed necessary by the board or requested by the supervisory committee.

Article 57 When the Company convenes a general meeting, a written notice of the meeting shall be given 45 days (exclusive of the date of the meeting) before the date of the meeting to notify all of the shareholders in the share register of the matters to be considered and the date and the place of the meeting. A shareholder who intends to attend the meeting shall deliver his written reply concerning the attendance of the meeting to the Company 20 days (exclusive of the date of the meeting) before the date of the meeting.²

Article 53 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

² This part complies with the requirements of Article 53 of the Mandatory Provisions. Article 103(1) of the Company Law provides that, in order to hold a general meeting, a notice concerning the time, venue and matters to be considered at the meeting shall be given to each shareholder 20 days in advance. In the event of an interim meeting of shareholders, the notice shall be given to each shareholder 15 days in advance. Where the company has issued bearer share certificates, a public notice concerning the time, venue and matters to be considered at the meeting shall be made 30 days prior to the meeting. As the provisions in the Mandatory Provisions are stricter than that of the Company Law, the provisions of the Mandatory Provisions have been adopted herein. Corresponding amendments will be made to the Articles of Association when the Mandatory Provisions is amended.

Article 58 When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, shareholders holding 3% or more (inclusive of 3%) of the total voting shares of the Company shall have the right to propose new proposals in writing, and the Company shall include in the agenda the matters fall within the scope of duties of the general meeting in the proposal.

Article 54 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 103 of the Company
Law

Article 59 The Company shall, based on the written replies received 20 days before the date of the general meeting from the shareholders, calculate the number of voting shares represented by shareholders who intend to attend the meeting. If the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting is more than half of the Company's total voting shares, the Company may hold the meeting. If not, the Company shall within 5 days notify the shareholders again by public notice of the matters to be considered in the meeting, the place and the date of the meeting. The Company may then hold the meeting after such publication has been made.

Article 55 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

An extraordinary general meeting shall not decide on those matters not stated in the notice of meeting.

Article 60 A notice of a general meeting shall comply with the following requirements:

- (1) it shall be in writing;
- (2) it shall specify the place, the date and the time of the meeting;
- (3) it shall state the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) provide such information and explanation as are necessary for the shareholders to exercise an informed decision on the proposals before them, including (but not limited to) where a proposal is made to merger, to repurchase shares, to reorganise the share capital, or to restructure the Company in any other way, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with copies of the proposed agreement, if any, and the cause and effect of such proposal must be properly explained;
- (5) contains a disclosure of the nature and extent, of the material interests, if any, of any director, supervisor, general manager, deputy general manager and other member of the senior management in the matter(s) to be discussed and the effect on them in their capacities as shareholders in so far as it is different from the effect on other shareholders of the same class;
- (6) contains the full text of any special resolutions proposed to be adopted at the meeting;
- (7) contains conspicuously a statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote on behalf of him and that proxy need not be a shareholder; and
- (8) specifies the time and place for lodging proxy forms for the relevant meeting.

Article 61 The notice of a general meeting shall be sent to the shareholders (whether or not entitled to vote at the meeting), by personal delivery or prepaid airmail to their addresses as shown in the register of shareholders. Subject to the relevant laws, regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of Company are listed and the requirements of this Articles of Association, the Company may also give notice to H shareholders by facsimile, e-mail, CD_ROM or other electronic means, or the means published on the website(s) of the overseas stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed (or on the website of the Company), or the means endorsed by the regulatory authority of the jurisdiction(s) where the shares of the Company are listed or other means as prescribed by the Articles of Association. For the holders of domestic shares, such notice of the general meeting may be issued by way of public notice.

Article 57 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

The public notice referred to in the preceding provision shall be published in one or more newspapers designated by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council within the interval between 45 days and 50 days before the date of the meeting. After the publication of such notice, the holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meeting.

Rules 7(1), (2)
and (3) of Appendix 3 to
the Listing Rules

The Chinese and English versions of such public notice shall be published in accordance with the requirements of Article 183 of this Article of Association.

Article 62 The accidental omission to give the notice of meeting to, or the non-receipt of the notice of meeting by, any persons entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the proceedings at that meeting.

Article 58 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 63 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (whether a shareholder or not) as his proxy to attend and vote on his behalf, and a proxy so appointed shall:

Article 59 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) have the same right as the shareholder to speak at the meeting;
- (2) have authority to demand or join in demanding a poll; and

- (3) have the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but when there are more than one proxy, that proxy may only exercise his voting rights on a poll.

Article 64 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointor or his attorney duly authorised in writing, or if the appointor is a legal entity either under seal or under the hand of a director or attorney duly authorised. Such instrument shall state the number of shares represented by the proxy. Where more than one proxy is appointed, the instrument shall state the numbers of shares represented by each of the proxies.

Article 60 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Rule 11(2) of Appendix 3 to
the Listing Rules

Article 65 The instrument appointing a proxy and, if such instrument is signed by a person under a power of attorney or other authority on behalf of the appointor, a notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authority, shall be deposited at the residence of the Company or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, no less than 24 hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote or the time appointed for the passing of the resolution. The instrument shall state the date of issue.

Article 61 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

If the appointor is a legal entity, its legal representative or such person as is authorised by resolution of its board of directors or other governing body to act as its representative may attend at any general meeting of the Company as the representative of the appointor.

Where a shareholder is a recognised clearing house (or its nominee(s)) as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), it may authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative(s) at any general meeting of the Company or at any meeting of any class shareholders provided that if more than one person is authorised, the authorisation shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorised. Such authorised person shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and power on behalf of the recognised clearing house (or its nominee(s)) which he or they represent as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company.

- Article 66 Any form issued to a shareholder by the board for use by him for appointing a proxy to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company shall be such as to enable the shareholder, according to his intention, to instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against each resolution dealing with the business(es) to be transacted at the meeting. Such a form shall contain a statement that in the absence of instructions by the shareholder the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.
- Article 62 of the Mandatory Provisions
Rule 11(1) of Appendix 3 to the Listing Rules
- Article 67 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall remain valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointor or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notice in writing of such death, loss of capacity, revocation or transfer as aforesaid shall have been received by the Company before the commencement of the meeting at which the proxy is used.
- Article 63 of the Mandatory Provisions
- Article 68 Resolutions of general meeting shall be classified into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.
- Article 64 of the Mandatory Provisions
- To adopt an ordinary resolution, votes representing more than half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting must be exercised in favour of the resolution in order for it to be passed.
- To adopt a special resolution, votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting must be exercised in favour of the resolution in order for it to be passed.
- Article 69 A shareholder (including proxy) when voting at a general meeting may exercise voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying the right to vote and each share shall have one vote.
- Article 65 of the Mandatory Provisions
- If any shareholder is, under the Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.
- Rule 14 of Appendix 3 to the Listing Rules

Article 70 At any general meeting of shareholders, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or after any vote by show of hands) demanded:

Article 66 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) by the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) by at least two shareholders entitled to vote present in person or by proxy; or
- (3) by one or more shareholders present in person or by proxy representing 10% or more (inclusive of 10%) of all shares (whether by one shareholder individually or in aggregate with other shareholders) carrying the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who makes such demand.

Article 71 A poll demanded on the election of the chairman, or on a question of adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matter shall be taken at such time as the chairman directs, and the meeting may proceed to discuss other matters, while the result of the poll shall still be deemed to be a resolution of that meeting.

Article 67 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 72 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

Article 68 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 73 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a casting vote.

Article 69 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 74 The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a general meeting:

Article 70 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) work reports of the board and the supervisory committee;
- (2) plans formulated by the board for the distribution of profits and for making up losses;
- (3) removal of the members of the board and members of the supervisory committee, their remunerations and methods of payment;
- (4) annual budget reports and final budgetary reports, balance sheets and profit statements and other financial statements of the Company; and
- (5) matters other than those required by the laws and administrative regulations or by the Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolution.

Article 75 The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a general meeting:

Article 71 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) the increase or reduction of share capital and the issue of any classes of shares, warrants and other similar securities;
- (2) the issue of the debentures of the Company;
- (3) the split, merger, dissolution and liquidation and material acquisitions and disposals of the Company;
- (4) amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (5) any other matters considered by the general meeting, by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by a special resolution?
- (6) other matters required by the laws and administrative regulations or by the Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolution.

Article 76 Any resolutions passed at a general meeting shall comply with the requirements of the PRC laws, administrative regulations and the relevant requirements of this Articles of Association.

Article 77 Convening of an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting at the request of shareholder shall be proceeded in accordance with the procedures set forth below?

Article 72 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) two or more shareholders holding a total of 10% (inclusive of 10%) or more of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held may sign one or more written requests of identical form and substance requesting the board to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting and stating the subject of the meeting. The board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting as soon as possible after having received the above-mentioned written request. The shareholding referred to above shall be calculated as of the day on which the written request is made?
- (2) if the board fails to issue a notice of such meeting within 30 days after having received the above-mentioned written notice, the shareholders who made such request may themselves convene the meeting within four months after the board had received the request. The procedures according to which they convene such meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedures according to which general meetings are to be convened by the board.

Where shareholders convene and hold a meeting due to the failure of the board to hold such meeting pursuant to a request as mentioned above, the reasonable expenses incurred by such meetings shall be borne by the Company and shall be deducted from the sums owed by the Company to the directors who neglect their duties.

Article 78 General meetings shall be convened by the board and presided over by the chairman. Where the chairman is unable to or fails to do so, the vice chairman shall preside over such a meeting; and where the vice chairman is unable to or fails to do so, a director jointly elected by more than half of the directors shall preside over it.

Article 102 of the Company
Law

Where the board is unable to perform or fails to perform the duty of convening a general meeting, the supervisory committee shall convene and preside over such a meeting in a timely manner; and where the supervisory committee fails to convene and preside over the meeting, the shareholder(s) individually or in aggregate holding more than 10% of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside over the meeting on his or their own accordingly.

- Article 79 The chairman of the meeting shall decide whether or not a resolution is has been carried. The decision of the chairman shall be final and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting. Article 74 of the Mandatory Provisions
- Article 80 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts about the result of a resolution put to the vote, he/she may count the number of votes cast. If the chairman of the meeting has not counted the votes, a shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who challenges the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall have the right to request counting of votes immediately after such announcement, and the chairman of the meeting shall count the votes immediately. Article 75 of the Mandatory Provisions
- Article 81 If votes counted at a general meeting, the result of the counting shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of the meeting, the attendance record of the attended shareholders and the proxy form of proxy shall be kept at the Company's domicile. Article 76 of the Mandatory Provisions
- The minutes of the meeting shall be recorded by the secretary at the meeting, and signed by chairman of meeting and the attended directors.
- Article 82 Shareholders may examine photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Company's office hours free of charge. If any shareholder demands from the Company a photocopy of the relevant minutes of meetings, the Company shall send such photocopies within 7 days of receiving payment of reasonable charges. Article 77 of the Mandatory Provisions

Chapter 9 Special Voting Procedures for Class Shareholders

Article 83 Shareholders who hold different classes of shares shall be class shareholders.

Article 78 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Class shareholders shall have rights and assume obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 84 Rights conferred on class shareholders may not be varied or abrogated unless approved by a special resolution of shareholders in general meeting and by holders of shares of that class at a separate meeting conducted in accordance with provisions of Articles 86 to 90.

Article 79 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

Article 85 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be variation or abrogation of the rights of a certain class of shareholders:

Article 80 of the
Mandatory
Provisions

- (2) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (3) not to expropriate in any manner the Company's property, including (without limitation) usurpation of opportunities beneficial to the Company; and
- (4) not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders, including (without limitation) rights to distribution and voting rights, save pursuant to a restructuring of the Company submitted to shareholders for approval in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 127 Each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and other management members owes a duty, in the exercise of his/her powers and discharge of his/her duties, to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Article 115 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 128 The Company's directors, supervisors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior management members shall carry out their duties in accordance with the fiduciary principle and shall not put himself/herself in a position where his/her duty and his interest may conflict. This principle includes (without limitation) the discharging of the following obligations:

Article 116 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;

- (2) to exercise powers within the scope of his powers and duties and not exceeding those powers and duties;
- (3) to exercise the discretionary power vested in him/her personally and not to allow himself to act under the control of others and, unless and to the extent permitted by laws, administrative regulations or with the informed consent of shareholders given in general meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his/her discretionary power;
- (4) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;
- (5) except in accordance with the Articles of Association or with the informed consent of shareholders given in general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;
- (6) without the informed consent of shareholders given in general meeting, not to use the Company's property by any means for his own benefit;
- (7) not to exploit his/her position to accept bribes or other illegal income or expropriate the Company's property by any means, including (without limitation) opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (8) without the informed consent of shareholders given in general meeting, not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transactions;
- (9) to abide by the Articles of Association, faithfully execute his/her powers and duties and protect the Company's interests, and not to exploit his/her position and power in the Company to advance his/her own personal interest;
- (10) not to compete with the Company in any form unless with the informed consent of shareholders given in general meeting;

- (11) not to misappropriate the Company's funds or lend such funds to others, not to open accounts in his/her own name or other names for the deposit of the Company's assets and not to provide a guarantee for debts of any shareholder of the Company or other individual(s) with the Company's assets;
- (12) unless with the informed consent of shareholders given in general meeting, to keep in confidence information in respect of the Company acquired by him/her in the course of and during his/her tenure and not to use such information other than in furtherance of the interests of the Company, save that disclosure of such information to the court or other governmental competent authorities is permitted if:
 - (i) pursuant to the law;
 - (ii) the interests of the public require disclosure;
 - (iii) the interests of such directors, supervisors, general managers, deputy general managers or other senior management members so require.

Article 129 Directors, supervisors, general managers, deputy general managers or other senior management members of the Company shall not cause the following persons or institutions (“associates”) to do what they are prohibited from doing:

Article 117 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) the spouse or under-aged child (children) of directors, supervisors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior management members of the Company;
- (2) a person acting in the capacity of trustee of directors, supervisors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior management members of the Company or any person referred to in sub-paragraph (1) of this article;
- (3) a person acting in the capacity of partner of directors, supervisors, general managers, deputy general managers and other senior management members of the Company or any person referred to in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this article;

the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 132 Where directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members of the Company are in any way, directly or indirectly, materially interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement or proposed contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company (other than an employment contract of directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and any other senior management members with the Company), they shall declare the nature and extent of their interests to the board at the earliest opportunity, whether or not the contract, transaction or arrangement or proposal therefor is otherwise subject to the approval of the board.

Article 120 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

A Director shall not vote on the resolution in relation to any contract, transaction, arrangement or proposal in which he/she has material interest, and shall not be counted towards the quorum of the meeting.

Unless the interested directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members discloses their interests in accordance with the preceding paragraph of this article and such matter is approved by the board at a meeting in which the interested directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members are not counted towards the quorum and refrains from voting, the Company has the right to revoke such contract, transaction or arrangement except as against a bona fide party thereto acting without notice of the breach of duty by the interested directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior management members.

Directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and the other senior management members of the Company are deemed to be interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement in which an associate of them is interested.

Article 133 Where directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and the other senior management members of the Company give the board a general notice in writing stating that, by reason of the facts specified in the notice, they are interested in contracts, transactions or arrangements of any description which may subsequently be made by the Company, such notice shall be deemed for the purposes of the preceding paragraph of this article to be a sufficient declaration of the interests of the relevant directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and the other senior management members, so far as the content stated in such notice is concerned, provided that such general notice shall have been given before the date on which the question of entering into the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement is first taken into consideration on behalf of the Company.

Article 134 The Company shall not pay taxes for its directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and any other senior management members in any manner.

Article 122 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 135 The Company shall not directly or indirectly make a loan to, or provide any guarantee in connection with a loan made to, directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members of the Company or of the Company's parent company or any of their respective associates.

Article 123 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

The following transactions are not subject to such prohibition:

- (1) the making by the Company of a loan or a guarantee of a loan to a company which is a subsidiary of the Company;
- (2) the making by the Company of a loan or a guarantee or any other funds to any of its directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior management members to meet the expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him/her for the purposes of the Company or for the purposes of enabling him/her to perform his/her duties properly, according to an employment contract approved by the shareholders in general meeting;
- (3) the Company may make a loan or provide a guarantee to any of the relevant directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior management members and their respective associates on normal commercial terms, provided that the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the lending of money or the giving of guarantees.

Article 136 A loan made by the Company in breach of the above provisions shall be forthwith repaid by the recipient of the loan regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 124 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 137 A guarantee for loan provided by the Company in breach of Article 135(1) shall not be compulsorily enforceable against the Company, unless:

Article 125 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) when the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan to an associate of any of the directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior management members of the Company or the Company's parent company, the lender was not aware of the relevant circumstances;
- (2) the security provided by the Company has been lawfully disposed of by the loan provider to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 138 For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this chapter, a guarantee includes an undertaking or property provided to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor.

Article 126 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 139 In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members of the Company are in breach of their duties to the Company, the Company has a right to:

Article 127 of the Mandatory Provisions

- (1) claim damages from the directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members in compensation for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;
- (2) rescind any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with the directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members and any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with a third person who knows or should know that there is a breach of duties by the directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior management members, as a representative of the Company;

- (3) demand an account of the profits made by the directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members in breach of his/her duties;
- (4) recover any monies received by the directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior management members which should otherwise have been received by the Company, including (without limitation) commissions;
- (5) demand payment of the interest earned or which may have been earned by the directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers and other senior management members on the monies that shall have been paid to the Company.

Article 140 The Company shall, with the prior approval of shareholders in general meeting, enter into a contract in writing with a director or supervisor wherein his emoluments are stipulated. The aforesaid emoluments include:

Article 128 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) emoluments in respect of his/her service as director, supervisor or senior management member of the Company;
- (2) emoluments in respect of his/her service as director, supervisor or senior management member of any subsidiary of the Company;
- (3) emoluments in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company and any of its subsidiaries;
- (4) payment by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his/her retirement from office.

Except under a contract entered into in accordance with the foregoing, no proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Company for any benefits which he/she should obtain in relation to the above matters.

Article 141 The contracts concerning the emoluments between the Company and its directors or supervisors shall provide that, in the event of a takeover of the Company, the Directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of the shareholders in general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other payment in respect of his/her loss of office or retirement. A “takeover of the Company” referred to above shall mean either:

Article 129 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) an offer made by any person to all the shareholders; or
- (2) an offer made by any person with a view to becoming a “controlling shareholder” himself within the meaning set out in Article 57 hereof.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with the provision of this article, any sum so received by him/her shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of their acceptance of the said offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such sum pro rata amongst those persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and shall not be deducted out of the sum distributed.

Where a dispute or claim of rights abovementioned is referred to arbitration, the entire claim or dispute must be referred to arbitration, and all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall abide by the arbitration if they are the Company or the Company's shareholder, directors, supervisors, general manager, deputy general managers or other senior management members.

Disputes in relation to the identification of shareholders and disputes in relation to the register of members need not be referred to arbitration.

- (2) A claimant may elect to conduct the arbitration at either the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its securities arbitration rules. Once a claimant refers a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body elected by the claimant.

If a claimant elects to conduct the arbitration at Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, any party to the dispute or claim may request for the arbitration to be conducted in Shenzhen in accordance with the securities arbitration rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

- (3) Unless otherwise provided by laws or administrative regulations, the laws of the PRC shall apply to the settlement by means of arbitration of disputes or claims referred to in (1).
- (4) The award of an arbitration body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

Chapter 21 Notice

Article 183 Unless otherwise provided for in this Articles of Association, any notice, information, written statements or any document (including but not limited to annual reports, interim reports, notices of meetings, listing documents, circulars and proxy forms) (hereinafter “Corporate Communications”) to be issued by the Company must be sent by personal delivery or by mail to each holder of H shares at his/her registered address ; or by means of facsimile, electronic mail, disk or other electronic means; or by publication thereof on the website in accordance with the procedures stipulated below; or by such other means endorsed by the relevant regulatory authorities of the place where the Company’s shares are listed or provided under this Articles of Association.

Rule 7(3) of Appendix 3 to
the Listing Rules

If the Company delivers Corporate Communications to the holders of H shares by publishing the same on the website of the Company, then upon the completion of the following procedures, any holder of H shares who has consented in writing or not objected to the delivery of Corporate Communications in such manner shall be deemed to have accepted the delivery of Corporate Communications by the Company in such manner:

- (1) The Company serves a written notice to each of the holders of H shares, requesting for their consents to the delivery or provision of Corporate Communications by publishing the same on the website of the Company, and
- (2) The Company has not received any written reply from such holder of H shares indicating their objections thereto, within 28 days of the service of the notice as described in paragraph (1) above (or such period as prescribed by the relevant regulatory authorities from time to time).

If any holder of H shares who has been deemed to have accepted the delivery of Corporate Communications by publishing the same on the website of the Company is unable to collect or receive the Corporate Communications so delivered for whatsoever reason, then upon a written request to the Company, such holder may change its choice of the way to receive Corporate Communications and may also receive a hardcopy of Corporate Communications free-of-charge.

Notices distributed to holders of domestic shares by the Company shall be dispatched to each holder of domestic shares at his/her registered address by hand or by post or by way of announcement in one or more newspapers designated by the securities regulatory authorities of the State. All holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice upon the publication of the announcement.

Unless the context of this Articles of Association otherwise requires, an “announcement” to be issued to holders of domestic shares or to be issued within the territory of the PRC in accordance with the applicable regulations and this Articles of Association means the publication of an announcement in the newspapers in the PRC designated or suggested by the local laws, regulations or the relevant securities regulating bodies. An announcement to be issued to holders of overseas listed foreign shares or to be published at the places of the stock exchange where the securities of the Company are listed overseas means the publication of an announcement on the website of the overseas stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed (and the Company’s website) and newspapers designated or suggested by the local laws, regulations and the relevant securities regulating bodies of the places of the relevant stock exchange.

Article 184 When the notice is delivered by mail, it shall clearly specify the address, prepaid the postages and put the notice into the envelope for posting. The shareholders shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant meeting 5 days after the letter containing the notice is posted.

Article 185 Any notice, document, information or written statement given by a shareholder or director to the Company may be delivered by hand or by registered mail to the legal address of the Company.

Article 186 Shareholders or directors who wish to prove that notices, documents, information or written statements have been served on the Company shall provide evidential materials showing that the same have been served on the Company by usual means within the prescribed periods, as well as evidential materials showing that the mailing address is correct and the postage was fully paid.

Chapter 22 Supplementary Provisions

Article 187 Reference to the term “Accounting Firm” herein shall have the same meaning as ascribed to the term “Auditors”.

Article 165 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 188 References to “above”, “within” and “below” in this Articles of Association are inclusive of the relevant numbers themselves whereas “except” and “outside” are exclusive of the item itself.
